"LOOK OUT FOR THE CARS"

DO YOU know of anyone who is old enough to read, who has not seen that sign at a railroad crossing?

If everyone has seen it at some time or other, then why doesn't the railroad let the sign rot away? Why does the railroad company continue to keep those signs at every crossing?

Maybe you think Mr. Merchant, "Most everybody knows my store, I don't have to advertise."

Your store and your goods need more advertising than the railroads need to do to warn people to "Look Out for the Cars."

Nothing is ever completed in the advertising world.

The Department Stores are a very good example—they are continually advertising—and they are continually doing a good business.

If it pays to run a few ads round about Christmas time, it certainly will pay you to run advertisements about all the time.

It's just business, that's all.

ADVERTISE in THIS PAPER

Camel's Working Life.

Camels are fit for serious work at five years, and their strength begins to decline at twenty-five years, although they live for thirty-five and forty years.

Island Pond

Alfred Finnegan had a narrow escape from being run down by an auto last Friday evening at the corner of Cross and Main streets. A little more caution should be used by auto drivers at this particular point; pedestrians should be warned by the driver by the sounding of his horn or klaxon and thus prevent any accident.

Notice the number of new advertisers this week. Stern Brothers are advertising a large line of fall goods on the last page; Frank Flint of Newport comes before you with his Wooltex advertising; the Glenwood Range takes a prominent place; the Idle Hour theatre is waking up to a prominent place in the paper; then there is the Vermont Local League advertising and the Jarvis piano adv't. Take notice of them and of the regular advertisers.

Owing to the heavy wind in the afternoon and evening the village was without light service, Sunday. The wind played havoc with the shade trees, several being blown down. Part of the roof of A. H. Nourse's residence was blown off. Claude Foster had several windows blown in, and there was much other damage in and about town, caused by the high winds the first of the week.

A clipping from one of our Maine exchanges:—

"Joseph Chesley, of Island Pond, Vt., was tendered a farewell banquet by the local employees of the Grand Trunk, Thursday evening. Mr. Chesley has been substituting for the trainmen on the local division for the past two months and has made many friends among the employees of the road. In addition to the good old-fashioned feed, there were tenor and baritone solos by Arthur Rawstrom and Mr. Chesley. It was a late hour when the party sounded taps."

One day last week while Irene Farrell and her little sister were picking cherries west of the iron bridge they discovered a motorcycle lying on the ground, partly covered by leaves. Thinking it was left there by someone working in that vicinity, they did not give it much thought. When they arrived home they said they did not find many cherries, but had seen a motorcycle. On Monday they learned that young Mr. Hawkins' motorcycle had been stolen. Remembering about the one that they had seen in the woods, they hastened to notify Mr. Hawkins by phone, and about nine p.m., Monday evening, he arrived at the home of the children and they escorted him to the place in the woods where they had seen the motorcycle, and fortunately found the machine, to the great delight of Mr. Hawkins, who was very profuse in his thanks over the finding of the lost motorcycle.

On Wednesday evening, Sept. 22, friends of Miss Genevieve Damon, to the number of about twenty, gathered at the home of Misses Maude and Edith Sadlier and tendered her a surprise party in honor of her birthday. The arrangements were very skillfully made; Miss Damon had been asked to call on Miss Sadlier at the hour of eight, and calling at that time she found herself surrounded by a large number of her friends. Music and games were indulged in and dainty refreshments served. The party broke up at a late hour after a most enjoyable evening.

At the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon Evangelist Lewis E. Smith will speak to men only giving his unique address, subject, "Backbone." Special musical selections with vocal solos by C. S. Foster, piano accompaniment with cello obligato by Mrs. Robert Lawton and Geo. L. Dyer. Mr. Smith will sing "The Old Willow Rocker," with autoharp accompaniment. All men are cordially invited.

Norton Road Completed.

At last we have a highway leading direct between Island Pond and Norton Mills, Vt., and for this we must thank the state highway commissioners who have done us a great favor which we never can return; it has been a very hard road to build but with good steady nerve it has been completed to such an extent that we are able to drive over in good shape. To prove this Mr. and Mrs. Tom Todd started from Lyndon at 12:00 o'clock noon Saturday, Sept. 18th and arrived at A. L. Erickson's farm, Norton, at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, making the trip easy from Lyndon to Norton in four hours. This road was first thought of by A. L. Erickson in 1902, who started by signing a petition and sending to Montpelier by the town of Norton representative and kept dragging until finally was taken up by the legislature and worked out. This will be one of the nicest drives in our state and making a direct road between Portland and Montreal parallel with the Grand Trunk railroad. Another point is, we will be able to go from Norton without going 50 miles around or going through Canada. Again there is some of the best Vermont soil at Summit and Lake that is looking for some settlers. Some of the finest places for summer cottages are by the road overlooking the railroad and large lake, which has been stocked this fall. Better look up your cottage lot soon.

'Graustark', the Story of Love Behind Throne.

He offered to lay down his life for the woman he loved! No greater test of a man than this can be made. It is the supreme sacrifice.

What woman does not thrill to the love of a man willing to die that she might be happy? What man is not carried to the loftiest heights of sentiment by such devotion and sacrifice?

All the world is akin and a reality great love is the one emotion that stirs the depths of every heart. It is uplifting, ennobling, inspiring.

This is the story George Barr McCutcheon tells in Essanay's six-act photoplay, "Graustark." Grenfell Lorry, the young American, loves a princess. He is young, rich and has everything to live for. Yet because of his great love he offers his life to save a woman.

This is the emotion that stirs indescribable something in all spectators and holds them tense and forgetful of everything else in the world. This is what lifts "Graustark" from the ordinary and stamps it a GREAT play.

"Graustark" is coming to the Idlehour Theatre, Tuesday, Oct. 5th, with Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in the leading roles.

The regular quarterly session of probate court will be held in the Municipal court room, Island Pond, on Wednesday afternoon, October 6.

Mrs. Charles Roby passed the week end in Norton with relatives.

PREACHER WAS LAID UP.

Rev. C. M. Knighton, Havana, Fla., writes: "For three months I suffered intense pain in the kidneys and back which at times laid me up entirely. I used 1-2 bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and all the pain disappeared. I feel as if 20 years had been added to my life." Relieves rheumatism, backache, sore muscles, stiff joints.

Lotus-Flower Cigarettes. In Siam the natives smoke cigarettes made of home-grown tobacco wrapped in dried banana leaves or in the petals of the royal lotus flower. In the latter form they are most delicious, according to Carl C. Hanson, United States consul at Bangkok.

Preventing Typhoid Fever. Proper sanitary conditions, such as destroying the fly and mosquito and their breeding places, providing good sewage disposal, keeping the premises clean, and a prompt application of anti-typhoid vaccine where there is the least suspicion of the fever, will prevent typhoid fever. Preventive methods will save 35,000 lives annually.

HOW TO BE EFFICIENT.

Nothing saps the vitality like kidney trouble. It causes backache, headache, stiff joints, sore muscles, "always tired" feeling, rheumatism and other ills. To be efficient, you must be healthy. Foley Kidney Pills strengthen the kidneys, help them do their work of filtering out from the system the waste matter that causes the trouble.

Almost Right.

Al Totten tells an amusing story of his first golf caddy. Jolson found driving off rather difficult and communed with his caddy as to the reason he missed the ball so frequently. The boy sagely delivered the following advice: "The first thing you've got to learn, Mr. Jolson, is to 'concentrate' your eye on the ball. Then you can hit it."

Pupil of "Best Teacher."

"Cheer up, old boy," advised the married man. "You know 'tis 'ter to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all." "Yes," agreed the rejected suitor, jingling a bunch of keys in his pocket, "better for the florist, the confectioner, the messenger boy, the restaurant waiter, the taxicabman, the theatre magnate and the jeweler."

Lay Out Their Time Poorly.

A lot of men are so busy planning for tomorrow that they never find time to do the things which they yesterday planned to do today.

Where Rain Never Has Fallen.

The driest place in the world is that portion of Egypt between the two lower falls of the Nile. Rain has never been known to fall there.

Lucky Sparrow.

An Irishman tried to shoot a sparrow with a very old musket. He fired. The bird, with a chirp or two, flew away unharmed in the foreground, and the Irishman, with a look of surprise on his face, exclaimed: "Be jabbers, ye wouldn't 'a' chirruped if ye'd been at this end of the gun."

Obviously Misleading.

Passing a swimming pool in a small city one day two country women read this sign at the entrance: "25,000 Gals. In and Out Every Hour." "That's all nonsense," said one of the women. "There ain't that many women in this whole county."

Didn't Know Where to Quit Pounding. "How did it come, sah, dat when it looked like dat cullud man had done got yo' plumb licked yo' turned him over and hammered him good?" "Well, sah, he didn't know when to quit. He kept on wh-hippin' me when whippin' had gone out o' fashion."—Kansas City Star.
